

Join EBC online for group Orientation & Mobility five-class series:

Traveling with Sight Loss

Taught by Certified Orientation & Mobility (O&M) Specialists
Regina Kutches, M.A., C.A.O.M.S. & Maura Wong Cooper, M.A., C.A.O.M.S.

A fun and informative arena to learn and talk openly about safe and efficient ways to travel independently

- Discover O&M and how it can improve your life
- Be inspired to become a more confident, independent, safe, and efficient traveler in your community and on trips
- Gain detailed information on how to cross streets and travel safely by yourself
- Hear from guest speakers about their experiences traveling as a person with sight loss and how O&M has benefitted them
- Decide if O&M training is right for you

Remote Class Mondays, October 12 - November 9, 2020

1:00 to 3:00 p.m. PDT

$250 for the 5-week series
